

BOSH Global Services Ranks No. 122 on the 2009 Inc. 500 with Three-Year Sales Growth of 1,415.0%

NEW YORK, August 12, 2009 -- Inc. magazine today ranked BOSH Global Services number 122 on its 28th annual Inc. 500, an exclusive ranking of the nation's fastest-growing private companies. The list represents the most comprehensive look at the most important segment of the economy, America's independent-minded entrepreneurs. Companies such as Microsoft, Intuit, GoDaddy, Oracle, and hundreds of other powerhouses gained early exposure as members of the Inc. 500.

"If you want to know which companies are going to change the world, look at the Inc. 500," said Inc. editor Jane Berentson. "These are the most dynamic, fast-growth companies in the nation, the ones finding innovative solutions to problems, creating smart systems, and inventing products we soon discover we can't live without. The Inc. 500 list is Inc. magazine's tribute to American business ingenuity and ambition."

BOSH Global Services is a turnkey service provider committed to transforming unmanned systems operating on land and sea, in air and space for military and civilian agencies. Demand for unmanned systems has grown exponentially in the past decade. BOSH has a proven record and extensive experience in engineering, installation, system integration, and lifecycle management for the nation's most important unmanned system programs.

The veteran-owned company supports mission-critical unmanned systems, first responder communications networks, video surveillance, and intelligence systems at all levels, including launch and recovery, satellite terminal connectivity, operations and system planning, training, 24x7 operational support, intelligence, surveillance, reconnaissance, and management of retrieved data. The company has achieved growth through superior customer support and an exceptionally stable rate of delivery of real-time motion video, voice, metadata, still imagery, radar, and other sensor data.

BOSH Global Services, an SBA-Certified, 8(a) company headquartered in Newport News, Virginia, focuses on maximizing interoperability, compatibility, and the seamless insertion of new technology. Employing the best minds from the military and engineering communities, BOSH strives to ensure that unmanned systems technology is used to its fullest potential.

The 2009 Inc. 500 reported aggregate revenue of $18.4 billion - up significantly from last year's $13.7 billion - and a median three-year growth rate of 880.5 percent. Companies on this year's list also created more than 55,000 jobs since their founding, making the Inc. 500 perhaps the best example of the impact private, fast-growing companies can have on the overall U.S. economy. Complete results of the Inc. 500, including company profiles and an interactive database that can be sorted by industry, region, and other criteria, can be found on Inc.com.
